Whether you're jet-setting on a business trip or embarking on a well-deserved vacation, entrust your beloved cats to our dedicated team of professionals. With a passion for cats and a commitment to exceptional care, we go above and beyond to ensure that your furry friends feel loved, safe, and content in your absence.

The Herpetshop Experience

At Herpetshop, we believe that every cat deserves the royal treatment. That's why we've designed our cat sitting services to cater to the unique needs and preferences of each feline guest. From playful kittens to wise old tabbies, our experienced caregivers provide personalized attention and affection to every cat under our care.

Our Services

Our comprehensive cat sitting services are tailored to meet the diverse needs of both cats and their owners. Whether you require daily visits, overnight stays, or extended care, we offer flexible scheduling options to accommodate your busy lifestyle. Our services include:

1. Daily Visits: Our dedicated caregivers will visit your home to provide feeding, fresh water, litter box maintenance, and plenty of love and attention for your cat.
2. Overnight Stays: For cats who prefer the comfort of their own surroundings, we offer overnight stays where one of our caregivers will stay in your home to provide round-the-clock care and companionship.
3. Medication Administration: If your cat requires medication or special medical attention, rest assured that our skilled caregivers are trained to administer medications and monitor your cat's health closely.
4. Playtime and Enrichment: We believe in keeping your cat happy and stimulated, which is why we offer interactive play sessions, enrichment activities, and plenty of cuddle time to ensure that your cat remains mentally and physically engaged during their stay with us.
5. Regular Updates: We understand how important peace of mind is when you're away from your cat. That's why we provide regular updates, photos, and videos of your cat's adventures so you can stay connected and informed throughout your time apart.

Our Commitment to Excellence

At Herpetshop, we hold ourselves to the highest standards of excellence in everything we do. From the moment you entrust your cat to our care, we treat them as if they were our own, providing them with the love, attention, and care they deserve. We understand that every cat is unique, which is why we take the time to get to know each cat individually, learning their likes, dislikes, and personality quirks to ensure that their stay with us is comfortable and enjoyable.
